THE HUMANE SOCIETY
OF THE UNITED STATES

Illegal Animal Fighting Investigations

Animal fighting reaches past animal cruelty alone involving many other criminal offenses such as gambling, drugs, firearms and gang activity.

This activity occurs in both urban and rural areas often with underground networks stretching across state lines. This training will better your skills, knowledge, and resources in combating this practice in your community and state.

Seminar Topics

- History and motivations of animal fighting
- Categories of animal fighting
- Animal fighting paraphernalia
- Animal fighting's connection to other felony crimes
- Search warrants, performing investigations, and recognizing/logging evidence at an arrest or raid
- Disposition of confiscated animals
- Preparing a case for court
- Knowing, interpreting, and applying the law
- Dealing with the media
- Street fighting

Hosted by

Sheboygan County Humane Society

Who Should Attend?

- Law Enforcement Officers
- Prosecutors and Judges
- Animal Control Officers
- Humane Investigators

Seminar Leaders

Our instructors are well-seasoned, highly experienced, and dedicated individuals who will provide a wealth of information to help you win the war against illegal animal fighting in your community.
